APPLICANT VIRGINIA POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE AND STATE
UNIVERSITY’S MOTION TO STRIKE OPPOSER HOKIE OBJECTIVE
ONOMASTICS SOCIETY LLC’S FIRST, THIRD AND FOURTH
NOTICES OF RELIANCE OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE MOTION
UNDER FED. R. CIV. P. 36(B) TO WITHDRAW THE ADMISSIONS

Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University (“Virginia Tech”) hereby moves to strike the First, Third and Fourth Notices of Reliance filed by Opposer Hokie Objective Onomastic Society LLC (“HOOS”), attaching Opposer’s first, third and fourth requests for admission, respectively, which HOOS claims are admitted because Virginia Tech failed to serve timely responses. Virginia Tech believes its answers to the requests for admission were timely served and therefore HOOS’s reliance on them as being admitted under Fed. R. Civ. P 36(a)(3) is improper. Alternatively, Virginia Tech moves under Rule 36(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for the admissions to be withdrawn and for its previously served response to be deemed to have been served timely.

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

This discovery dispute addresses the question of whether or not Virginia Tech’s responses to HOOS’s requests for admission were timely served. HOOS contends that Virginia

Tech's responses were filed late. It, therefore, filed notices of reliance attaching the requests as having been admitted. Virginia Tech calculated the due dates for its responses from the date it filed its motion for summary judgment and requested the proceedings be suspended.¹ However, HOOS calculated the response dates from the date of the Board's order of suspension. Thus, the parties' respective calculations differ by a matter of a few days.

Rule 510.03(a) of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board Manual of Procedure ("TBMP") states that "when issuing its suspension order, the Board ordinarily treats the proceeding as if it had been suspended as of the filing date of the potentially dispositive motion. On a case-by-case basis, the Board may find that the filing of a potentially dispositive motion provides a party with good cause for not complying with an otherwise outstanding obligation, for example, responding to discovery requests." (Emphasis added). Consistent with the language of TBMP 510.03(a) and the request in each of Virginia Tech's motions for summary judgment for the Board to extend the time for Virginia Tech to respond to HOOS's outstanding discovery requests, Virginia Tech calculated the date its responses were due from the date it filed its motions for summary judgment. Consequently, its responses to HOOS's requests for admissions were timely served. However, even if served late, Virginia Tech has shown good cause for their late service and, as such, the admissions should be waived and HOOS's notices of reliance should be stricken.

Alternatively, Virginia Tech's motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(b) should be granted because (1) the merits of the case will be subserved by allowing withdrawal of the admissions and the acceptance of Virginia Tech's response and (2) HOOS will not be prejudiced by allowing the withdrawal of the admissions.

This case has been hotly contested from the outset. Virginia Tech has made three dispositive motions challenging HOOS's standing to commence this proceeding. Furthermore, the parties exchanged extensive written discovery including, Virginia Tech's response to HOOS's requests for admission, produced documents, and Virginia Tech took the discovery deposition of HOOS's sole member and manager, James Creekmore. Having been served with Virginia Tech's response to its requests for admissions, HOOS was well aware that Virginia Tech took issue with the vast majority of its requests. Indeed, in its answer to the amended notice of opposition, Virginia Tech denied the salient allegations relating to the facts at issue in the requests for admission, namely, the purported misuse of the ® registration symbol and the purported false date of first use of the mark HOKIE. Thus, it should come as no surprise to HOOS that these facts are in dispute. Nevertheless, HOOS, during its trial period, took the position for the first time that Virginia Tech's responses were not timely served. This procedural gamble is at odds with the plain language of TBMP Rule 510.03(a). Under the circumstances, HOOS cannot now be heard to complain that it will be prejudiced if the admissions are deemed waived.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

On September 30, 2013, HOOS served by first class U.S. Mail Opposer's First Set of Discovery Requests which consisted of 85 requests for admission, one interrogatory and one request for production of documents and things. See Exhibit 1 to the Declaration of Robert S. Weisbein. The requests for admission all related to Virginia Tech's first use of the mark HOKIE primarily for goods and services having nothing to do with the educational and entertainment services covered by the application in dispute in this proceeding. In any event, Virginia Tech's responses were due on November 5, 2013.

On October 28, 2013, eight days before Virginia Tech's responses to HOOS's First Set of Discovery Requests were due, Virginia Tech filed a motion for summary judgment (Dkt. No. 12) on the grounds that HOOS was estopped from bringing the within proceeding because it was the alter ego of James Creekmore, who was prohibited from challenging the use and registration of the HOKIE mark by reason of a waiver and release provision contained in a settlement agreement signed by Mr. Creekmore's client in the trademark infringement litigation brought by Virginia Tech against Hokie Real Estate, Inc. ("HRE").² The waiver and release contained language prohibiting HRE and its attorneys from challenging or interfering with Virginia Tech's use and registration of the HOKIE mark.

On November 5, 2013, the Board entered its Order suspending the proceedings. (Dkt. No. 14). On January 8, 2014, the Board issued its Order, denying Virginia Tech's motion for summary judgment and resuming the proceedings. (Dkt. No. 18). Relying on TBMP Rule 510.03(a), Virginia Tech calculated the due date for it to respond to HOOS's outstanding discovery from the filing date of its motion. Based on that calculation, Virginia Tech's response would have been due on January 16, 2014, eight days after the resumption of the proceedings. HOOS, however, calculated the date due from the issuance of the Board's November 5th order, making Virginia Tech's responses due on January 9, 2014, one day after the resumption of the proceedings. Virginia Tech served its responses on January 15, 2014, within the time to respond based on its calculation, but six days late based on HOOS's calculation. A copy of Virginia Tech's responses to HOOS's First Set of Discovery Requests are attached as Exhibit 2 to the Weisbein Declaration.

² Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University v. Hokie Real Estate, Inc., 7-10-CV-00466 (W.D. Va. 2010).

On September 18, 2014, HOOS served its Third and Fourth Sets of Discovery Requests by first class U.S. Mail. The Third Set was comprised of twelve requests for admission, one interrogatory and one document request, all directed toward the issue of Virginia Tech's purported misuse of the ® registration symbol on licensed goods bearing the HOKIE trademark. The Fourth Set was comprised of three requests for admission and one interrogatory directed toward the authentication of documents produced by Virginia Tech in the HRE litigation, which documents purportedly related to the first use of the HOKIE mark. Copies of HOOS's Third and Fourth Sets of Discovery Requests are attached to the Weisbein Declaration as Exhibits 3 and 4, respectively.

Virginia Tech's response would have been due on October 23, 2014, but on October 21, 2014, Virginia Tech filed a motion for summary judgment on the grounds that HOOS lacked standing to commence the opposition. (Dkt. No. 31). The motion was made after taking the deposition of HOOS's sole member and manager, James Creekmore, whose testimony Virginia Tech believed established that HOOS (1) was a bogus company set up simply to interfere with Virginia Tech's registration of the HOKIE mark, (2) was not offering services competitive with those offered by Virginia Tech under the HOKIE mark, (3) was not using HOKIE as a trademark, and (4) had no legitimate basis to claim damage by reason of Virginia Tech's registration of the HOKIE mark. By Order dated October 23, 2014, the Board suspended the proceedings. (Dkt. No. 32).

By Order dated August 27, 2015, the Board denied Virginia Tech's motion for summary judgment and resumed the proceedings. (Dkt. No. 41). Relying on TBMP Rule 510.03(a), Virginia Tech calculated the date its responses were due from the date of the filing of its motion for summary judgment, namely, October 21, 2014. Thus, Virginia Tech believed it had two days to file its responses, making them due on August 31, 2015. However, HOOS calculated the due date from the date the Board issued the suspension order (October 23, 2014), thereby making Virginia Tech's response due on the very same day the Board issued its order denying Virginia Tech's motion for summary judgment and resuming the proceedings.³

Virginia Tech served responses to HOOS's Third and Fourth Sets of Discovery Requests on August 31, 2015, which were supplemented on September 18, 2015. Copies of Virginia Tech's initial responses to HOOS's Third and Fourth Sets of Discovery Requests are attached to the Weisbein Declaration as Exhibits 6 and 7, respectively. Copies of Virginia Tech's supplemental responses are attached to the Weisbein Declaration as Exhibits 8 and 9, respectively.

III. ARGUMENT

A. HOOS' Notices of Reliance 1, 3 and 4 Are Improper Because They Attempt to Make of Record "Admissions" To Which Responses Were Timely Served.

HOOS filed four Notices of Reliance on December 17, 2015. Three of these Notices (Dkt. Nos. 42, 60, 63) claim Virginia Tech failed to timely respond to HOOS's requests for admission, thereby deeming them "admitted," when in fact, many of these so-called admissions were actually timely denied by Virginia Tech. These Notices of Reliance are therefore improper, and Virginia Tech respectfully requests that the Board strike them in their entireties pursuant to TBMP Rule 532.

HOOS's belief that Virginia Tech did not timely serve responses to its requests for admission stems from HOOS's narrow reading of TBMP Rule 510.03(a). HOOS calculated the request for admissions response dates from the date the Board issued its order of suspension. But TBMP Rule 510.03(a) expressly states that the Board "ordinarily treats the proceedings as if it had been suspended as of the filing of a potentially dispositive motion.”⁴ Calculating the response dates from the dates Virginia Tech’s motions for summary judgment were filed, rather than the dates the suspension orders were issued, Virginia Tech timely responded to HOOS’s requests for admission.⁵

This interpretation of TBMP 510.03(a) is consistent with the Board’s decision in Leeds Technologies Ltd. v. Topaz Communications Ltd, 65 U.S.P.Q.2d 1203 (TTAB 2002). In Leeds, opposer’s responses to applicant’s discovery requests were due after the filing date of opposer’s motion for judgment on the pleadings, but before the Board issued its suspension order. Id. at *3. Like HOOS, applicant argued that the response date remained unchanged because the proceeding was not yet suspended. But the Board rejected this argument. While it conceded that the proceeding may not have been “officially suspended” at this time, it nevertheless ruled the proceeding was retroactively suspended as of the filing date of opposer’s motion for judgment on the pleadings. Id. Thus, the Board’s decision in Leeds supports Virginia Tech’s response date calculations. Its responses to HOOS’ first, third, and fourth sets of requests for admission were therefore timely served. Because HOOS’s first, third, and fourth Notices of Reliance make of record the requests as having been admitted, they are improper and should be stricken from the trial record of this proceeding.

B. In the Alternative, the Board Should Treat Virginia Tech’s “Admissions” as Withdrawn to Further the Merits of the Proceeding.

In the event the Board finds Virginia Tech’s responses untimely and the requests deemed admitted, Virginia Tech moves to withdraw or amend the admissions pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 36(b). In applying this Rule, the Board may permit withdrawal or amendment of admissions when two prongs are met: (1) the presentation of the merits of the proceeding will be subverted by their withdrawal, and (2) the propounding party fails to satisfy the Board that withdrawal of amendment will prejudice that party in maintaining its action on the merits. Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(b); Giersch v. Scripps Networks, Inc., 85 U.S.P.Q.2d 1306, 1308-09 (TTAB 2007) (granting Rule 36(b) motion to withdraw admissions and accepting later-served responses). Both of these prongs are met here.

⁴ TBMP Rule 510.03(a) reads, in pertinent part, “when issuing its suspension order, the Board ordinarily treats the proceeding as if it had been suspended as of the filing date of the potentially dispositive motion.” (Emphasis added).

First, allowing Virginia Tech to withdraw its admissions furthers the merits of the case because the admissions involve hotly contested issues. Virginia Tech has taken issue with the majority of HOOS's requests, both in its responses to HOOS's requests for admission served mere days after the response deadlines passed, and also in its answer to HOOS's amended notice of opposition. The Board has found that previous denials of admitted facts conclusively satisfy the first prong of Rule 36(b). See, e.g., Giersch v. Scripps Network, Inc., 85 U.S.P.Q.2d 1306 at *3 (TTAB 2007) (denials involving previously admitted facts "demonstrat[e] that the supposedly admitted matters are actually disputed"); see also Apple Inc. v. Multiple Access Comm., LLC, 2014 WL 788341 at *3 (TTAB 2014) (permitting withdrawal because previous denials of admitted facts demonstrated that some of the admitted matters were in fact disputed).

As in Giersh, Virginia Tech's "admissions" involve necessary elements of HOOS's claims of ® trademark symbol misuse and the date of first use of the mark HOKIE, among others. Virginia Tech has disputed these issues from the inception of this proceeding, and it should be no surprise to HOOS that it continues to do so now. Given the centrality of these issues to HOOS's claims, withdrawal of the admissions is necessary to permit Virginia Tech to fully mount its defense to the baseless claims alleged by HOOS. Therefore, the first prong of Rule 36(b) is satisfied.

Second, HOOS bears the burden of demonstrating that it would be prejudiced by withdrawal under Rule 36(b). Virginia Tech, however, is not required to show that no prejudice will result. Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(b); TBMP Rule 525 (“The Board...may permit withdrawal...of an admission when the propounding party fails to satisfy the Board that withdrawal...will prejudice said party in maintaining its action or defense on the merits.”).

According to HOOS’s response date calculations, Virginia Tech filed its responses to HOOS’s first set of requests for admission just six days late and responses to HOOS’s third and fourth sets of requests just 2 days late. In its responses, Virginia Tech took issue with many of the requests. Previously, it had also timely denied many of these same allegations in its answer to HOOS’s amended notice of opposition. Consequently, Virginia Tech has made it abundantly clear throughout this entire proceeding that these issues are in dispute.

In a factually analogous case, Warren v. International Broth. of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen, and Helpers of America, 544 F.2d 334 (8th Cir. 1976), plaintiffs moved at trial to deem certain requests for admission admitted. Defendants had misread Rule 36, causing them to file their responses to plaintiff’s requests for admission 10 days late. Nevertheless, the Eighth Circuit found no abuse in the trial court’s refusal to deem the matters admitted. Because the defendants had specifically denied the requests in late-filed responses, and had also denied the issues in their answer to plaintiff’s amended complaint, the trial court permitted them to withdraw the admissions. Id. at 339. In so holding, the Eighth Circuit stated that plaintiffs had “suffered no prejudice in being forced to pursue the action on the merits.” Id.

In this case, HOOS has had every indication that the issues of fact raised in its requests for admissions were to be controverted issues at trial. Despite knowing this for over a year, well before discovery closed and its trial testimony period began, HOOS elected to remain silent and raise the issue for this first time on the eve of the close of its trial testimony period. Under these circumstances, it would be grossly unfair to allow HOOS to prove disputed issues central to its case through contested admissions, and Virginia Tech should therefore be permitted to withdraw the admissions and substitute its later-served responses.

IV. MOTION TO SUSPEND PROCEEDINGS PURSUANT TO TBMP RULE 510.03(A)

Virginia Tech requests suspension of this proceeding pursuant to TBMP Rule 510.03(a). Virginia Tech's motion to strike or in the alternative motion under Rule 36(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, if granted, will impact the evidence submitted by Virginia Tech during its trial period. Suspension of the proceedings until the Board rules on Virginia Tech's motion will enable Virginia Tech to consider the Board's decision in preparing its Pretrial Disclosures, which are currently due on January 1, 2016, as well as determine what evidence to present during its trial period that is now set to open on January 16, 2016. Virginia Tech respectfully submits that it has shown good cause for the proceedings to be suspended effective as of the filing date of this motion and for the Board to reset the date on which its pretrial disclosures are due as well as the remaining trial dates upon the resumption of the proceedings. Accordingly, suspension is warranted under TBMP Rule 510.03(a) and Virginia Tech respectfully requests that proceedings be suspended while the Board considers Virginia Tech's motion to strike or in the alternative motion under Rule 36(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

V. CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Virginia Tech respectfully requests that its motion to strike HOOS's First, Third and Fourth Notices of Reliance or in the alternative, that its admissions be withdrawn and its previously served response be deemed to have been served timely under Rule 36(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Furthermore, Virginia Tech respectfully requests that these proceedings be suspended during the pendency of the motion.

Dated on this 23rd day of December, 2015.

I, Robert S. Weisbein, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, declare as set forth below:

1. I am an attorney licensed by the State of New York, and am a partner with the law firm of Foley & Lardner LLP, attorneys of record for Applicant Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University ("Applicant") in the above-captioned proceeding. I have personal knowledge about the matters described in this declaration as set forth below.

2. I make this declaration in support of Applicant's Motion to Strike Opposer's First, Third and Fourth Notices of Reliance or in the Alternative Motion Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(b) to Withdraw the Admissions.

3. On September 30, 2013, HOOS served by first class U.S. Mail Opposer's First Set of Discovery Requests which consisted of 85 requests for admission, one interrogatory and one request for production of documents and things. Opposer's First Set of Discovery Requests are attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Virginia Tech's responses were due thirty-five days later (inclusive of five days for mailing) on November 5, 2013.

4. On October 28, 2013, eight days before Virginia Tech's responses to HOOS's First Set of Discovery Requests were due, Virginia Tech filed a motion for summary judgment (Dkt. No. 12) on the grounds that HOOS was estopped from bringing the within proceeding because it was the alter ego of James Creekmore, who was prohibited from challenging the use and registration of the HOKIE mark by reason of a waiver and release provision contained in a settlement agreement signed by Mr. Creekmore's client in the trademark infringement litigation brought by Virginia Tech against Hokie Real Estate, Inc. ("HRE"), Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University v. Hokie Real Estate, Inc., 7-10-CV-00466 (W.D. Va. 2010). The waiver and release contained language prohibiting HRE and its attorneys from challenging or interfering with Virginia Tech's use and registration of the HOKIE mark.

5. Contained within its motion for summary judgment, Virginia Tech moved under 37 C.F.R. § 2.127(d) to suspend the proceedings, which motion requested the Board to extend its time to respond to HOOS's outstanding discovery. See Virginia Tech's brief at pp. 11-12. The Board's November 5, 2013 Order suspending the proceedings was silent on the issue of resetting the time for Virginia Tech to respond to HOOS's First Set of Discovery Requests.

6. On November 5, 2013, the Board entered its Order suspending the proceedings. (Dkt. No. 14). On January 8, 2014, the Board issued its Order, denying Virginia Tech's motion for summary judgment and resuming the proceedings. (Dkt. No. 18). Relying on TBMP Rule 510.03(a), Virginia Tech calculated the due date for it to respond to HOOS's outstanding discovery from the filing date of its motion. Based on that calculation, Virginia Tech's response would have been due on January 16, 2014, eight days after the resumption of the proceedings. HOOS, however, calculated the date due from the issuance of the Board's November 5th order, making Virginia Tech's responses due on January 9, 2014, one day after the resumption of the proceedings. Virginia Tech served its responses on January 15, 2014, within the time to respond based on its calculation, but six days late based on HOOS's calculation. A copy of Virginia Tech's responses to HOOS's First Set of Discovery Requests are attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

7. On September 18, 2014, HOOS served its Third and Fourth Sets of Discovery Requests by first class U.S. Mail, making Virginia Tech's responses due thirty-five days later (inclusive of five days for mailing) on October 23, 2014. The Third Set was comprised of twelve requests for admission, one interrogatory and one document request. The Fourth Set was comprised of three requests for admission and one interrogatory. Copies of HOOS's Third and Fourth Sets of Discovery Requests are attached hereto as Exhibits 3 and 4, respectively.

8. Virginia Tech's responses would have been due on October 23, 2014, but on October 21, 2014, Virginia Tech filed a motion for summary judgment on the grounds that HOOS lacked standing to commence the opposition. (Dkt. No. 31). Virginia Tech also moved under 37 C.F.R. § 2.127(d) to suspend the proceedings and requested that its time to respond to respond to HOOS's third and fourth sets of discovery requests be extended by thirty days. See Virginia Tech's brief at p. 21. By Order dated October 23, 2014, the Board suspended the proceedings. (Dkt. No. 32). However, the Board did not rule on Virginia Tech's request to extend the time for Virginia Tech to respond to HOOS's outstanding discovery.

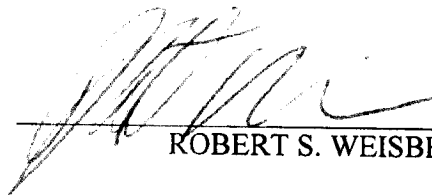

9. By Order dated August 27, 2015, the Board denied Virginia Tech's motion for summary judgment and resumed the proceedings. (Dkt. No. 41). Relying on TBMP Rule 510.03(a), Virginia Tech calculated the date its responses were due from the date of the filing of its motion for summary judgment, namely, October 21, 2014. Thus, Virginia Tech believed it had two days to file its responses, making them due on August 31, 2015. However, HOOS calculated the due date from the date the Board issued the suspension order (October 23, 2014), thereby making Virginia Tech's response due on the very same day the Board issued its order denying Virginia Tech's motion for summary judgment and resuming the proceedings.

10. Virginia Tech served responses to HOOS's Third and Fourth Sets of Discovery Requests on August 31, 2015, which were supplemented on September 18, 2015. Copies of Virginia Tech's initial responses to HOOS's Third and Fourth Sets of Discovery Requests are attached hereto as Exhibits 6 and 7, respectively. Copies of Virginia Tech's supplemental responses are attached hereto as Exhibits 8 and 9, respectively.

11. A timeline showing the operative dates is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of New York that the foregoing is true and correct, and that this Declaration was executed on December 23, 2015, in New York, New York.

OPPOSER'S FIRST SET OF DISCOVERY REQUESTS

Opposer Hokie Objective Onomastics Society LLC, by counsel, pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 33, 34 and 36, through counsel, hereby requests that Applicant Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University ("VPI&SU") (a) admit the truth of the matters set forth in the following Requests for Admission; (b) produce for inspection and copying (or produce copies of) the documents and things described in the following Requests for Production of Documents at The Creekmore Law Firm PC, 106 Faculty Street, Blacksburg, Virginia 24060; and (c) respond to the following interrogatory. VPI&SU's responses and productions are to be served within the time prescribed by Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 36(a)(3) and 34(b)(2)(A), respectively.

A. The term "communication" refers to any actual or attempted exchange or transfer of information between or among two or more persons.

B. The term "document" will have the fullest meaning ascribed to the terms "document" and "electronically stored information" by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34 and encompasses written, printed, typed and visually or aurally reproduced material of any kind, whether or not privileged, and includes, but is not limited to, letters, telegrams, facsimile transmissions, electronic mail, work papers, handwritten or other notes, memoranda, inter-office communications, notices, books, studies, analyses, evaluations, statements, summaries, opinions, records, minutes or transcriptions or notations of meetings, telephone conversations or other communications of any type, photographs, bills, contracts, invoices, agreements, orders, receipts, drawings or sketches, advertising or promotional literature, operating manuals or instruction bulletins, cables, tape and other recordings, test data, reports, questionnaires, surveys, charts, graphs, pamphlets and catalogs.

C. The term "identify" or "identification":

- (1) when used in reference to documents and things, means to describe sufficiently (a) the type of document or thing (e.g., letter or memorandum, etc.) and, if electronically stored information, the software application used to create it (e.g., Microsoft Word or Microsoft Excel, etc.); (b) the general subject matter of the document or thing; (c) the date of the document or thing; and (d) the author or creator and recipients of the document or thing;
- (2) when used in reference to a communication, means to describe (a) the date of the communication, (b) the substance of the communication, (c) the identity of all persons and/or entities who were parties to the communication, and (d) the form of the communication (e.g., verbal, written, e-mail, telephonic, etc.);
- (3) when used in reference to a natural person, means to state that person's (a) full name, (b) last known home address, (c) last known home phone number, (d) last known e-mail address, (e) last known employer, (f) last known work address, and (g) last known job title;

- (4) when used in reference to a legal entity, means to state that entity's (a) full legal name, (b) principal office address and phone number, and (c) responsible officer, owner or agent;
- (5) when used in reference to an agreement, license or understanding, means (a) to identify the parties thereto, (b) to state the date thereof, (c) to describe the general subject matter thereof, and (d) if the agreement, license or understanding is unwritten, to describe in detail the terms and provisions thereof;
- (6) when used in reference to a good or service, means (a) to state the general nature of such good or service, (b) to state the locations where each such good or service has been sold, rendered, offered or provided, and (c) to identify the dates when each such good or service has been sold, rendered, offered or provided; and
- (7) when used in reference to a date, means the exact date, month and year, if ascertainable, or if not, the best approximation (including relationship to other events).

D. The term "person" refers both to natural persons, whether or not in the employ of Applicant or Opposer, and to corporate or other business entities, divisions, departments, units, affiliates, parents, or subsidiaries, and the "acts and knowledge" of a person are defined to include the acts and knowledge of that person's directors, officers, members, employees, representatives, agents and attorneys.

E. The term "Applicant" refers to Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University.

F. The term "thing" will have the fullest meaning ascribed to the term "tangible thing" by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34.

G. The term "trademark" or "mark" includes trademarks, service marks, collective marks, certification marks and trade names as defined in 15 U.S.C. §1127. (Opposer's use of the term "trademark" or "mark" in connection with a term is for efficiency only and does not constitute a concession by Opposer that such term is in fact entitled to protection as a trademark or mark.)

H. The term "State" will mean any of the fifty states of the United States as well as the District of Columbia and each individual territory, possession, commonwealth or other jurisdiction of the United States.

I. "HOKIE mark" means the mark HOKIE and all variants thereof, including but not limited to the mark HOKIES, as well as all marks containing or including the mark HOKIE or HOKIES or any variant thereof. (Opposer's use of this defined term is for efficiency only and does not constitute a concession by Opposer that the terms HOKIE and HOKIES are the same when used as a mark, or that they are identical or similar in meaning or usage.)

INSTRUCTIONS

J. If documents or things exist in multiple distinct versions, then produce all such versions. If a document or thing exists in both hard-copy format and electronic format, then produce it in both formats, and ensure that the electronic format is in its native file format (i.e., the format in which it is normally maintained).

K. When asked to "describe" or "describe in detail," provide a complete and full identification of all details and information concerning such fact, event, ground or allegation that is the subject of the inquiry, including an identification of all documents and things that embody, reflect, refer or relate to, or provide evidence of the fact, grounds or allegation that is the subject of the inquiry.

L. Should Applicant deem to be privileged any documents or information concerning which information or inspection is requested by any of the following requests, Applicant shall indicate that it claims privilege therefor, briefly state the grounds on which the claim of privilege rests, and (consistent with and subject to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(A)) indicate the position held by the person who prepared and/or possesses the document, indicate the position held by the addressee, and identify all persons (and their positions) who received copies of such documents, either at the time of initial distribution or at any subsequent time, all in order that Opposer may have the actual basis to determine whether such documents or information are, in fact, privileged.

M. Applicant has the duty to supplement its responses to these requests at such times and to the extent required by Rule 26(e)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

In accordance with Rule 36 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule 2.120 of the Trademark Rules, 37 C.F.R. § 2.120, Applicant Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University (“Virginia Tech” or “Applicant”), by and through its undersigned attorneys, hereby responds to Opposer’s First Discovery Requests, as set forth below, subject to the objections set forth below.

1. The present responses are based upon and reflect only Applicant's knowledge, information and belief formed after reasonable investigation to determine responsive information. These responses may be subject to change, correction or amplification on the basis of further facts, information or circumstances that may come to Applicant's attention. In addition, Applicant reserves the right to assert any additional or supplemental objections.

imposed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Rules of Practice in Trademark cases, 37 C.F.R. § 2.1, et seq. (“Trademark Rules”).

3. Applicant objects to the “Definitions and Instructions” as set forth in Opposer’s First Set of Discovery Requests to the extent that they are inconsistent with or attempt to impose obligations beyond, in addition to, or different from those imposed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Trademark Rules. Applicant further objects to any definitions in these discovery requests to the extent that they purport to alter the plain meaning and/or scope of any specific discovery requests on the ground that such alteration renders the discovery requests vague, ambiguous, unduly broad and/or uncertain.

4. Applicant objects to Opposer’s definition of the term “HOKIE Mark” to the extent that it includes marks other than “HOKIE.”

5. Applicant objects to each and every discovery request to the extent that it seeks information protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, immunity or doctrine, and specifically reserves the right to withhold such information from Opposer. Nothing contained in these responses is intended to be, or in any way constitutes, a waiver of any such applicable privilege, immunity or doctrine.

6. Applicant objects to Opposer’s discovery requests to the extent that they seek information that is not within Applicant’s possession or knowledge, or that Applicant could not determine after conducting a reasonable investigation. RESPONSES

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 1:

Admit that in the years from 1901 through 1949 VPI&SU did not use the HOKIE mark to identify VPI&SU as a source of goods.

RESPONSE:

In its Order dated January 8, 2014, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, sua sponte dismissed Count C (False First Use Date) of the July 1, 2013 amended notice of opposition by striking paragraphs 27-28. Applicant, therefore, objects to this Request to Admit on the ground that it does not seek the discovery of relevant information because it is directed to the issue of Applicant's first use of the HOKIE mark and discovery relating to the issue of the dates of use is irrelevant to the proceedings given the Board's dismissal of Count C. Furthermore, this discovery is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

RESPONSE:

In its Order dated January 8, 2014, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, sua sponte dismissed Count C (False First Use Date) of the July 1, 2013 amended notice of opposition by striking paragraphs 27-28. Applicant, therefore, objects to this Request to Admit on the ground that it does not seek the discovery of relevant information because it is directed to the issue of Applicant's first use of the HOKIE mark and discovery relating to the issue of the dates of use is irrelevant to the proceedings given the Board's dismissal of Count C. Furthermore, this discovery is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 36:

Admit that in the years from 1961 through 1965 VPI&SU did not use the HOKIE mark to identify VPI&SU as a source of services.

Admit that in the years from 1973 through 1977 VPI&SU did not use the HOKIE mark to distinguish its goods from those of others.

RESPONSE:

In its Order dated January 8, 2014, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, sua sponte dismissed Count C (False First Use Date) of the July 1, 2013 amended notice of opposition by striking paragraphs 27-28. Applicant, therefore, objects to this Request to Admit on the ground that it does not seek the discovery of relevant information because it is directed to the issue of Applicant's first use of the HOKIE mark and discovery relating to the issue of the dates of use is irrelevant to the proceedings given the Board's dismissal of Count C. Furthermore, this discovery is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

OPPOSER'S THIRD SET OF DISCOVERY REQUESTS

Opposer Hokie Objective Onomastics Society LLC, by counsel, pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 33, 34 and 36, through counsel, hereby requests that Applicant Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University ("VPI&SU") (a) admit the truth of the matters set forth in the following Requests for Admission; (b) produce for inspection and copying (or produce copies of) the documents and things described in the following Requests for Production of Documents at The Creekmore Law Firm PC, 318 North Main Street, Blacksburg, Virginia 24060; and (c) respond to the following interrogatory. VPI&SU's responses and productions are to be served within the time prescribed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

A. The term "communication" refers to any actual or attempted exchange or transfer of information between or among two or more persons.

B. The term "document" will have the fullest meaning ascribed to the terms "document" and "electronically stored information" by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34 and encompasses written, printed, typed and visually or aurally reproduced material of any kind, whether or not privileged, and includes, but is not limited to, letters, telegrams, facsimile transmissions, electronic mail, work papers, handwritten or other notes, memoranda, inter-office communications, notices, books, studies, analyses, evaluations, statements, summaries, opinions, records, minutes or transcriptions or notations of meetings, telephone conversations or other communications of any type, photographs, bills, contracts, invoices, agreements, orders, receipts, drawings or sketches, advertising or promotional literature, operating manuals or instruction bulletins, cables, tape and other recordings, test data, reports, questionnaires, surveys, charts, graphs, pamphlets and catalogs.

C. The term “identify” or “identification”:

- (1) when used in reference to documents and things, means to describe sufficiently (a) the type of document or thing (e.g., letter or memorandum, etc.) and, if electronically stored information, the software application used to create it (e.g., Microsoft Word or Microsoft Excel, etc.); (b) the general subject matter of the document or thing; (c) the date of the document or thing; and (d) the author or creator and recipients of the document or thing;
- (2) when used in reference to a communication, means to describe (a) the date of the communication, (b) the substance of the communication, (c) the identity of all persons and/or entities who were parties to the communication, and (d) the form of the communication (e.g., verbal, written, e-mail, telephonic, etc.);
- (3) when used in reference to a natural person, means to state that person’s (a) full name, (b) last known home address, (c) last known home phone number, (d) last known e-mail address, (e) last known employer, (f) last known work address, and (g) last known job title;

- (4) when used in reference to a legal entity, means to state that entity's (a) full legal name, (b) principal office address and phone number, and (c) responsible officer, owner or agent;
- (5) when used in reference to an agreement, license or understanding, means (a) to identify the parties thereto, (b) to state the date thereof, (c) to describe the general subject matter thereof, and (d) if the agreement, license or understanding is unwritten, to describe in detail the terms and provisions thereof;
- (6) when used in reference to a good or service, means (a) to state the general nature of such good or service, (b) to state the locations where each such good or service has been sold, rendered, offered or provided, and (c) to identify the dates when each such good or service has been sold, rendered, offered or provided; and
- (7) when used in reference to a date, means the exact date, month and year, if ascertainable, or if not, the best approximation (including relationship to other events).

D. The term "person" refers both to natural persons, whether or not in the employ of Applicant or Opposer, and to corporate or other business entities, divisions, departments, units, affiliates, parents, or subsidiaries, and the "acts and knowledge" of a person are defined to include the acts and knowledge of that person's directors, officers, members, employees, representatives, agents and attorneys.

E. The term “Applicant” refers to Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University.

F. The term “thing” will have the fullest meaning ascribed to the term “tangible thing” by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34.

G. The term “trademark” or “mark” includes trademarks, service marks, collective marks, certification marks and trade names as defined in 15 U.S.C. §1127. (Opposer’s use of the term “trademark” or “mark” in connection with a term is for efficiency only and is not a concession by Opposer that such term is in fact entitled to protection as a trademark or mark.)

H. “HOKIE mark” means the mark HOKIE and all variants thereof, including but not limited to the mark HOKIES, as well as all marks containing or including the words HOKIE or HOKIES or any variant thereof. (Opposer’s use of this defined term is for efficiency only and does not constitute a concession by Opposer that the terms HOKIE and HOKIES are the same when used as a mark, or that they are identical or similar in meaning or usage.)

I. The phrase “singular HOKIE term” means the word HOKIE and does not include any variants or plurals thereof.

INSTRUCTIONS

J. If documents or things exist in multiple distinct versions, then produce all such versions. If a document or thing exists in both hard-copy format and electronic format, then produce it in both formats, and ensure that the electronic format is in its native file format (i.e., the format in which it is normally maintained).

that is the subject of the inquiry, including an identification of all documents and things that embody, reflect, refer or relate to, or provide evidence of the fact, grounds or allegation that is the subject of the inquiry.

L. Should Applicant deem to be privileged any documents or information concerning which information or inspection is requested by any of the following requests, Applicant shall indicate that it claims privilege therefor, briefly state the grounds on which the claim of privilege rests, and (consistent with and subject to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(A)) indicate the position held by the person who prepared and/or possesses the document, indicate the position held by the addressee, and identify all persons (and their positions) who received copies of such documents, either at the time of initial distribution or at any subsequent time, all in order that Opposer may have the actual basis to determine whether such documents or information are, in fact, privileged.

M. Applicant has the duty to supplement its responses to these requests at such times and to the extent required by Rule 26(e)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

OPPOSER'S FOURTH SET OF DISCOVERY REQUESTS

Opposer Hokie Objective Onomastics Society LLC, by counsel, pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 33, 34 and 36, through counsel, hereby requests that Applicant Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University ("VPI&SU") (a) admit the truth of the matters set forth in the following Requests for Admission and (b) respond to the following interrogatory. VPI&SU's responses and productions are to be served within the time prescribed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

A. The term "communication" refers to any actual or attempted exchange or transfer of information between or among two or more persons.

B. The term "document" will have the fullest meaning ascribed to the terms "document" and "electronically stored information" by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34 and encompasses written, printed, typed and visually or aurally reproduced material of any kind, whether or not privileged, and includes, but is not limited to, letters, telegrams, facsimile transmissions, electronic mail, work papers, handwritten or other notes, memoranda, inter-office communications, notices, books, studies, analyses, evaluations, statements, summaries, opinions, records, minutes or transcriptions or notations of meetings, telephone conversations or other communications of any type, photographs, bills, contracts, invoices, agreements, orders, receipts, drawings or sketches, advertising or promotional literature, operating manuals or instruction bulletins, cables, tape and other recordings, test data, reports, questionnaires, surveys, charts, graphs, pamphlets and catalogs.

C. The term “identify” or “identification”:

- (1) when used in reference to documents and things, means to describe sufficiently (a) the type of document or thing (e.g., letter or memorandum, etc.) and, if electronically stored information, the software application used to create it (e.g., Microsoft Word or Microsoft Excel, etc.); (b) the general subject matter of the document or thing; (c) the date of the document or thing; and (d) the author or creator and recipients of the document or thing;
- (2) when used in reference to a communication, means to describe (a) the date of the communication, (b) the substance of the communication, (c) the identity of all persons and/or entities who were parties to the communication, and (d) the form of the communication (e.g., verbal, written, e-mail, telephonic, etc.);
- (3) when used in reference to a natural person, means to state that person’s (a) full name, (b) last known home address, (c) last known home phone number, (d) last known e-mail address, (e) last known employer, (f) last known work address, and (g) last known job title;

- (4) when used in reference to a legal entity, means to state that entity's (a) full legal name, (b) principal office address and phone number, and (c) responsible officer, owner or agent;
- (5) when used in reference to an agreement, license or understanding, means (a) to identify the parties thereto, (b) to state the date thereof, (c) to describe the general subject matter thereof, and (d) if the agreement, license or understanding is unwritten, to describe in detail the terms and provisions thereof;
- (6) when used in reference to a good or service, means (a) to state the general nature of such good or service, (b) to state the locations where each such good or service has been sold, rendered, offered or provided, and (c) to identify the dates when each such good or service has been sold, rendered, offered or provided; and
- (7) when used in reference to a date, means the exact date, month and year, if ascertainable, or if not, the best approximation (including relationship to other events).

D. The term "person" refers both to natural persons, whether or not in the employ of Applicant or Opposer, and to corporate or other business entities, divisions, departments, units, affiliates, parents, or subsidiaries, and the "acts and knowledge" of a person are defined to include the acts and knowledge of that person's directors, officers, members, employees, representatives, agents and attorneys.

E. The term "Applicant" refers to Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University.

F. The term “thing” will have the fullest meaning ascribed to the term “tangible thing” by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34.

G. The term “trademark” or “mark” includes trademarks, service marks, collective marks, certification marks and trade names as defined in 15 U.S.C. §1127. (Opposer’s use of the term “trademark” or “mark” in connection with a term is for efficiency only and is not a concession by Opposer that such term is in fact entitled to protection as a trademark or mark.)

H. “HOKIE mark” means the mark HOKIE and all variants thereof, including but not limited to the mark HOKIES, as well as all marks containing or including the words HOKIE or HOKIES or any variant thereof. (Opposer’s use of this defined term is for efficiency only and does not constitute a concession by Opposer that the terms HOKIE and HOKIES are the same when used as a mark, or that they are identical or similar in meaning or usage.)

I. The phrase “singular HOKIE term” means the word HOKIE and does not include any variants or plurals thereof.

INSTRUCTIONS

J. If documents or things exist in multiple distinct versions, then produce all such versions. If a document or thing exists in both hard-copy format and electronic format, then produce it in both formats, and ensure that the electronic format is in its native file format (i.e., the format in which it is normally maintained).

K. When asked to “describe” or “describe in detail,” provide a complete and full identification of all details and information concerning such fact, event, ground or allegation that is the subject of the inquiry, including an identification of all documents and things that embody, reflect, refer or relate to, or provide evidence of the fact, grounds or allegation that is the subject of the inquiry.

L. Should Applicant deem to be privileged any documents or information concerning which information or inspection is requested by any of the following requests, Applicant shall indicate that it claims privilege therefor, briefly state the grounds on which the claim of privilege rests, and (consistent with and subject to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(A)) indicate the position held by the person who prepared and/or possesses the document, indicate the position held by the addressee, and identify all persons (and their positions) who received copies of such documents, either at the time of initial distribution or at any subsequent time, all in order that Opposer may have the actual basis to determine whether such documents or information are, in fact, privileged.

M. Applicant has the duty to supplement its responses to these requests at such times and to the extent required by Rule 26(e)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

1. With respect to each document in the PDF file served with these requests entitled "Exhibit A to Opposer's Fourth Set of Discovery Requests.pdf" admit the following:

- (i) The document is an authentic and genuine copy of the original document.
- (ii) The document was made by VPI&SU in the regular course of business.
- (iii) The document was made by a person in the course of his or her job duties, and who had a duty to make a true record.
- (iv) The document is kept by VPI&SU in the ordinary course of business.
- (v) The document is used and relied upon by VPI&SU in the transaction of business.
- (vi) The document was made at or near the time of the events described therein.

(vii) The document was made by, or from information transmitted by, a person with knowledge of the facts contained therein.

(viii) The custodian of the document in fact has custody of it.

(ix) VPI&SU previously produced the document to a third party pursuant to a discovery request.

2. With respect to each document among the copies of issues of the VPI&SU student newspaper and copies of editions of the VPI&SU yearbook served together with Opposer's Responses to Applicant's First Request for Production of Documents and Things (dated September 30, 2013), admit the following:

(i) The document is an authentic and genuine copy of the original document.

(ii) The document was made by VPI&SU in the regular course of business.

(iii) The document was made by a person in the course of his or her job duties, and who had a duty to make a true record.

(iv) The document is kept by VPI&SU in the ordinary course of business.

(v) The document is used and relied upon by VPI&SU in the transaction of business.

(vi) The document was made at or near the time of the events described therein.

(vii) The document was made by, or from information transmitted by, a person with knowledge of the facts contained therein.

(viii) The custodian of the document in fact has custody of it.

3. With respect to the document at pages HOKIE-2011-01-21-002269 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002269 of the PDF file served with Opposer's Third Set of Discovery Requests requests entitled "Exhibit A-2 to Opposer's Third Set of Discovery Requests.pdf," admit that VPI&SU received a copy of the document in March or April 2010.

INTERROGATORIES

1. Describe in detail the reasons for any denial of any of the above requests for admission.

In accordance with Rule 36 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule 2.120 of the Trademark Rules, 37 C.F.R. § 2.120, Applicant Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University (“Virginia Tech” or “Applicant”), by and through its undersigned attorneys, hereby responds to Opposer’s First Discovery Requests, as set forth below, subject to the objections set forth below.

1. The present responses are based upon and reflect only Applicant's knowledge, information and belief formed after reasonable investigation to determine responsive information. These responses may be subject to change, correction or amplification on the basis of further facts, information or circumstances that may come to Applicant's attention. In addition, Applicant reserves the right to assert any additional or supplemental objections.

2. Applicant objects to each and every discovery request to the extent that it is inconsistent with or attempts to impose obligations beyond, in addition to, or different from those imposed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Rules of Practice in Trademark cases, 37 C.F.R. § 2.1, et seq. (“Trademark Rules”).

3. Applicant objects to the “Definitions and Instructions” as set forth in Opposer’s Third Set of Discovery Requests to the extent that they are inconsistent with or attempt to impose obligations beyond, in addition to, or different from those imposed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Trademark Rules. Applicant further objects to any definitions in these discovery requests to the extent that they purport to alter the plain meaning and/or scope of any specific discovery requests on the ground that such alteration renders the discovery requests vague, ambiguous, unduly broad and/or uncertain.

4. Applicant objects to Opposer’s definition of the term “HOKIE Mark” to the extent that it includes marks other than “HOKIE.”

5. Applicant objects to each and every discovery request to the extent that it seeks information protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, immunity or doctrine, and specifically reserves the right to withhold such information from Opposer. Nothing contained in these responses is intended to be, or in any way constitutes, a waiver of any such applicable privilege, immunity or doctrine.

6. Applicant objects to Opposer’s discovery requests to the extent that they seek information that is not within Applicant’s possession or knowledge, or that Applicant could not determine after conducting a reasonable investigation. In accordance with the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Trademark Rules, Applicant's responses are limited to information in their possession or knowledge.

7. Applicant objects to each and every discovery requests to the extent it seeks information that already is in Opposer's possession or knowledge, or that otherwise is publicly available to Opposer.

8. Applicant objects to Opposer's discovery requests to the extent that they are repetitive and duplicative of one another.

RESPONSES

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 1.

With respect to each item depicted in (a) pages HOKIE-2011-01-21-001734 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-001771 and HOKIE-2011-01-21-002271 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002400 of the PDF file served with these requests entitled "Exhibit A-2 to Opposer's Third Set of Discovery Requests.pdf" ("Exhibit A-2) and (b) each item depicted in the PDF file served with these requests entitled "Exhibit C to Opposer's Third Set of Discovery Requests.pdf," ("Exhibit C") admit that VPI&SU authorized the use of the circle-r "©" registration symbol in connection with the singular HOKIE term on such item.

OBJECTION:

Applicant specifically incorporates and repeats by reference each of its General Objections. Applicant further objects to this Request for Admission on the basis that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome and harassing in that to respond to this Request, Applicant is required to review hundreds of pages of documents produced in an unrelated litigation, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University v. Hokie Real Estate, Inc., 7-10-CV-00466 (W.D. Va. 2010), and is not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Furthermore, Applicant objects to this Request because the burden to Applicant to respond outweighs the likely benefit, considering the needs of the case, the nature of the controversy, the importance of the issues at stake in the action, and the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues.

RESPONSE:

Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 2.

With respect to each item depicted in (a) pages HOKIE-2011-01-21-001734 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-001771 and HOKIE-2011-01-21-002271 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002400 of Exhibit A-2 and (b) each item depicted in Exhibit C, admit that VPI&SU used the circle-r “©” registration symbol in connection with the singular HOKIE term on such item.

OBJECTION:

RESPONSE:

Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 3.

With respect to (a) each item depicted in pages HOKIE-2011-01-21-001734 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-001771 and HOKIE-2011-01-21-002271 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002400 of Exhibit A-2 and (b) each item depicted in Exhibit C, admit that a licensee of VPI&SU used the circle-r “©” registration symbol in connection with the singular HOKIE term on such item.

OBJECTION:

RESPONSE:

Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 4.

With respect to each document at pages (a) HOKIE-2011-01-21-002265 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002268 of Exhibit A-2, (b) HOKIE-2011-01-21-002623 of Exhibit A-2, (c) HOKIE-2011-01-21-002630 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002681 of Exhibit A-2, and (c) HOKIE-2011-01-21-0021 00 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002707 of Exhibit A-2, admit the following:

- (i) The documents are authentic and genuine copies of the original documents.
- (ii) The documents were made by VPI&SU in the regular course of business.

(iii) The documents were made by a person in the course of his or her job duties, and who had a duty to make a true record.

(iv) The documents are kept by VPI&SU in the ordinary course of business.

(v) The documents are used and relied upon by VPI&SU in the transaction of business.

(vi) The documents were made at or near the time of the events described therein.

(vii) The documents were made by, or from information transmitted by, a person with knowledge of the facts contained therein.

(viii) The custodian of the documents in fact has custody of them.

OBJECTION:

RESPONSE:

(i) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(ii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(iii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(iv) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(v) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(vi) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(vii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(viii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 5.

With respect to each document at pages (a) HOKIE-2011-01-21-001865 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-001866 of Exhibit A-2; (b) HOKIE-2011-01-21-001868 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-001872 of Exhibit A-2; (c) HOKIE-2011-01-21-001874 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002015 of Exhibit A-2; (d) HOKIE-2011-01-21-002471 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002473 of Exhibit A-2; and (e) HOKIE-2011-01-21-002531 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002532 of Exhibit A-2; admit the following:

(i) VPI&SU received a copy of the document in January 2011.

(ii) In January 2011, the use of the HOKIE mark depicted in the document was not authorized by VPI&SU.

(iii) Since receiving the document, VPI&SU has taken no action to confirm the use of the HOKIE mark depicted in the document.

(iv) Since receiving the document, VPI&SU has taken no action to stop the use of the HOKIE mark depicted in the document.

(v) Since receiving the document, VPI&SU has taken no action to require or request that the user of the HOKIE mark as depicted in the document obtain a license for such use from VPI&SU.

(vi) The use of the HOKIE mark depicted in the document is not presently authorized by VPI&SU.

OBJECTION:

RESPONSE:

(i) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(ii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(iii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(iv) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(v) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(vi) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

Opposition No. 91207895

Serial No.: 85-531,923

In accordance with Rule 36 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule 2.120 of the Trademark Rules, 37 C.F.R. § 2.120, Applicant Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University (“Virginia Tech” or “Applicant”), by and through its undersigned attorneys, hereby responds to Opposer’s First Discovery Requests, as set forth below, subject to the objections set forth below.

1. The present responses are based upon and reflect only Applicant's knowledge, information and belief formed after reasonable investigation to determine responsive information. These responses may be subject to change, correction or amplification on the basis of further facts, information or circumstances that may come to Applicant's attention. In addition, Applicant reserves the right to assert any additional or supplemental objections.

imposed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Rules of Practice in Trademark cases, 37 C.F.R. § 2.1, et seq. (“Trademark Rules”).

3. Applicant objects to the “Definitions and Instructions” as set forth in Opposer’s First Set of Discovery Requests to the extent that they are inconsistent with or attempt to impose obligations beyond, in addition to, or different from those imposed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Trademark Rules. Applicant further objects to any definitions in these discovery requests to the extent that they purport to alter the plain meaning and/or scope of any specific discovery requests on the ground that such alteration renders the discovery requests vague, ambiguous, unduly broad and/or uncertain.

4. Applicant objects to Opposer’s definition of the term “HOKIE Mark” to the extent that it includes marks other than “HOKIE.”

5. Applicant objects to each and every discovery request to the extent that it seeks information protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, immunity or doctrine, and specifically reserves the right to withhold such information from Opposer. Nothing contained in these responses is intended to be, or in any way constitutes, a waiver of any such applicable privilege, immunity or doctrine.

6. Applicant objects to Opposer’s discovery requests to the extent that they seek information that is not within Applicant’s possession or knowledge, or that Applicant could not determine after conducting a reasonable investigation. In accordance with the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Trademark Rules, Applicant’s responses are limited to information in their possession or knowledge.

7. Applicant objects to each and every discovery requests to the extent it seeks information that already is in Opposer's possession or knowledge, or that otherwise is publicly available to Opposer.

8. Applicant objects to Opposer's discovery requests to the extent that they are repetitive and duplicative of one another.

RESPONSES

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 1:

With respect to each document in the PDF file served with these requests entitled "Exhibit A to Opposer's Fourth Set of Discovery Requests.pdf" admit the following:

- (i) The document is an authentic and genuine copy of the original document.
- (ii) The document was made by VPI&SU in the regular course of business.

- (iv) The document is kept by VPI&SU in the ordinary course of business.
- (v) The document is used and relied upon by VPI&SU in the transaction of business.
- (vi) The document was made at or near the time of the events described therein.
- (vii) The document was made by, or from information transmitted by, a person with knowledge of the facts contained therein.
- (viii) The custodian of the document in fact has custody of it.
- (ix) VPI&SU previously produced the document to a third party pursuant to a discovery request..

OBJECTION:

Applicant specifically incorporates and repeats by reference each of its General Objections. Applicant further objects to this Request for Admission on the basis that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome and harassing in that to respond to this Request, Applicant is required to review hundreds of pages of documents produced in an unrelated litigation, Virginia

Polytechnic Institute and State University v. Hokie Real Estate, Inc., 7-10-CV-00466 (W.D. Va. 2010), and is not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Furthermore, Applicant objects to this Request because the burden to Applicant to respond outweighs the likely benefit, considering the needs of the case, the nature of the controversy, the importance of the issues at stake in the action, and the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues.

RESPONSE:

(i) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(ii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(iii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(iv) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(v) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(vi) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(vii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(viii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(xi) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 2:

With respect to each document among the copies of issues of the VPI&SU student newspaper and copies of editions of the VPI&SU yearbook served together with Opposer's Responses to Applicant's First Request for Production of Documents and Things (dated September 30, 2013), admit the following:

- (i) The document is an authentic and genuine copy of the original document.
- (ii) The document was made by VPI&SU in the regular course of business.
- (iii) The document was made by a person in the course of his or her job duties, and who had a duty to make a true record.
- (iv) The document is kept by VPI&SU in the ordinary course of business.
- (v) The document is used and relied upon by VPI&SU in the transaction of business.
- (vi) The document was made at or near the time of the events described therein.
- (vii) The document was made by, or from information transmitted by, a person with knowledge of the facts contained therein.
- (viii) The custodian of the document in fact has custody of it.

OBJECTION:

RESPONSE:

(i) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(ii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(iii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(iv) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(v) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(vi) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(vii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

(viii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 3:

With respect to the document at pages HOKIE-201 1-01-21-002269 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002269 of the PDF file served with Opposer's Third Set of Discovery Requests requests entitled "Exhibit A-2 to Opposer's Third Set of Discovery Requests.pdf," admit that VPI&SU received a copy of the document in March or April 2010.

OBJECTION:

Applicant specifically incorporates and repeats by reference each of its General Objections. Applicant further objects to this Request for Admission on the basis that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome and harassing in that to respond to this Request, Applicant is required to review hundreds of pages of documents produced in an unrelated litigation, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University v. Hokie Real Estate, Inc., 7-10-CV-00466 (W.D. Va. 2010), and is not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Furthermore, Applicant objects to this Request because the burden to Applicant to respond outweighs the likely benefit, considering the needs of the case, the nature of the controversy, the importance of the issues at stake in the action, and the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues.

RESPONSE:

Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this request.

INTERROGATORY

INTERROGATORY NO. 1

Describe in detail the reasons for any denial of any of the above requests for admission.

OBJECTION:

Applicant specifically incorporates and repeats by reference each of its General Objections. Applicant further objects to this Interrogatory on the basis that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome and harassing in that to respond to this Request, Applicant is required to review hundreds of pages of documents produced in an unrelated litigation, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University v. Hokie Real Estate, Inc., 7-10-CV-00466 (W.D. Va. 2010), and is not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Furthermore, Applicant objects to this Request because the burden to Applicant to respond outweighs the likely benefit, considering the needs of the case, the nature of the controversy, the importance of the issues at stake in the action, and the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues.

In accordance with Rule 36 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule 2.120 of the Trademark Rules, 37 C.F.R. § 2.120, Applicant Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University (“Virginia Tech” or “Applicant”), by and through its undersigned attorneys, hereby responds to Opposer’s First Discovery Requests, as set forth below, subject to the objections set forth below.

The term “DKI” when used in these responses means that Applicant lacks knowledge or information sufficient to be able to either admit or deny the Request for Admission notwithstanding having made a reasonable inquiry and that the information it knows or can readily obtain is insufficient to enable it to admit or deny said Request for Admission.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

1. The present responses are based upon and reflect only Applicant's knowledge, information and belief formed after reasonable investigation to determine responsive information. These responses may be subject to change, correction or amplification on the basis of further facts, information or circumstances that may come to Applicant's attention. In addition, Applicant reserves the right to assert any additional or supplemental objections.

2. Applicant objects to each and every discovery request to the extent that it is inconsistent with or attempts to impose obligations beyond, in addition to, or different from those imposed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Rules of Practice in Trademark cases, 37 C.F.R. § 2.1, et seq. ("Trademark Rules").

3. Applicant objects to the "Definitions and Instructions" as set forth in Opposer's Third Set of Discovery Requests to the extent that they are inconsistent with or attempt to impose obligations beyond, in addition to, or different from those imposed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Trademark Rules. Applicant further objects to any definitions in these discovery requests to the extent that they purport to alter the plain meaning and/or scope of any specific discovery requests on the ground that such alteration renders the discovery requests vague, ambiguous, unduly broad and/or uncertain.

4. Applicant objects to Opposer's definition of the term "HOKIE Mark" to the extent that it includes marks other than "HOKIE."

5. Applicant objects to each and every discovery request to the extent that it seeks information protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, immunity or doctrine, and specifically reserves the right to withhold such information from Opposer. Nothing contained in these responses is intended to be, or in any way constitutes, a waiver of any such applicable privilege, immunity or doctrine.

6. Applicant objects to Opposer's discovery requests to the extent that they seek information that is not within Applicant's possession or knowledge, or that Applicant could not determine after conducting a reasonable investigation. In accordance with the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Trademark Rules, Applicant's responses are limited to information in their possession or knowledge.

7. Applicant objects to each and every discovery requests to the extent it seeks information that already is in Opposer's possession or knowledge, or that otherwise is publicly available to Opposer.

8. Applicant objects to Opposer's discovery requests to the extent that they are repetitive and duplicative of one another.

RESPONSES

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 1.

With respect to each item depicted in (a) pages HOKIE-2011-01-21-001734 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-001771 and HOKIE-2011-01-21-002271 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002400 of the PDF file served with these requests entitled "Exhibit A-2 to Opposer's Third Set of Discovery Requests.pdf" ("Exhibit A-2) and (b) each item depicted in the PDF file served with these requests entitled "Exhibit C to Opposer's Third Set of Discovery Requests.pdf," ("Exhibit C") admit that VPI&SU authorized the use of the circle-r "©" registration symbol in connection with the singular HOKIE term on such item.

OBJECTION:

Applicant specifically incorporates and repeats by reference each of its General Objections. Applicant further objects to this Request for Admission on the basis that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome and harassing in that to respond to this Request, Applicant is required to review hundreds of pages of documents produced in an unrelated litigation, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University v. Hokie Real Estate, Inc., 7-10-CV-00466 (W.D. Va. 2010), and is not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Furthermore, Applicant objects to this Request because the burden to Applicant to respond outweighs the likely benefit, considering the needs of the case, the nature of the controversy, the importance of the issues at stake in the action, and the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues.

RESPONSE:

Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

SUPPLEMENTAL OBJECTION:

Applicant further objects to this Request for Admission insofar as it relates to documents bearing Bates nos. 2011-01-21-002271—002280, entitled “Listing of Items Illegally Using the Federal Registration Symbol (“®”) With The Unregistered Term HOKIE,” which was presumably prepared by Opposer’s counsel, on the grounds that Applicant has no way to verify the accuracy of the information contained therein and therefore is not in a position to either admit or deny said Request for Admission.

SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE:

Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, see Exhibit A annexed hereto for Applicant’s Supplemental Response.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 2.

With respect to each item depicted in (a) pages HOKIE-2011-01-21-001734 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-001771 and HOKIE-2011-01-21-002271 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002400 of Exhibit A-2 and (b) each item depicted in Exhibit C, admit that VPI&SU used the circle-r “©” registration symbol in connection with the singular HOKIE term on such item.

OBJECTION:

RESPONSE:

Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

SUPPLEMENTAL OBJECTION:

Applicant further objects to this Request for Admission insofar as it relates to documents bearing Bates nos. 2011-01-21-002271—002280, entitled “Listing of Items Illegally Using the Federal Registration Symbol (“®”) With The Unregistered Term HOKIE,” which was presumably prepared by Opposer’s counsel, on the grounds that Applicant has no way to verify the accuracy of the information contained therein and therefore is not in a position to either admit or deny said Request for Admission.

SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE:

Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, see Exhibit A annexed hereto for Applicant's Supplemental Response.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 3.

With respect to (a) each item depicted in pages HOKIE-2011-01-21-001734 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-001771 and HOKIE-2011-01-21-002271 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002400 of Exhibit A-2 and (b) each item depicted in Exhibit C, admit that a licensee of VPI&SU used the circle-r "©" registration symbol in connection with the singular HOKIE term on such item.

OBJECTION:

RESPONSE:

Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

SUPPLEMENTAL OBJECTION:

Applicant further objects to this Request for Admission insofar as it relates to documents bearing Bates nos. 2011-01-21-002271—002280, entitled "Listing of Items Illegally Using the Federal Registration Symbol (“®”) With The Unregistered Term HOKIE,” which was presumably prepared by Opposer’s counsel, on the grounds that Applicant has no way to verify the accuracy of the information contained therein and therefore is not in a position to either admit or deny said Request for Admission.

SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE:

Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, see Exhibit A annexed hereto for Applicant’s Supplemental Response.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 4.

With respect to each document at pages (a) HOKIE-2011-01-21-002265 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002268 of Exhibit A-2, (b) HOKIE-2011-01-21-002623 of Exhibit A-2, (c) HOKIE-2011-01-21-002630 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002681 of Exhibit A-2, and (c) HOKIE-2011-01-21-0021 00 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002707 of Exhibit A-2, admit the following:

- (i) The documents are authentic and genuine copies of the original documents.
- (ii) The documents were made by VPI&SU in the regular course of business.
- (iii) The documents were made by a person in the course of his or her job duties, and who had a duty to make a true record.
- (iv) The documents are kept by VPI&SU in the ordinary course of business.
- (v) The documents are used and relied upon by VPI&SU in the transaction of business.
- (vi) The documents were made at or near the time of the events described therein.
- (vii) The documents were made by, or from information transmitted by, a person with knowledge of the facts contained therein.
- (viii) The custodian of the documents in fact has custody of them.

OBJECTION:

Applicant specifically incorporates and repeats by reference each of its General Objections. Applicant further objects to this Request for Admission on the basis that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome and harassing in that to respond to this Request, Applicant is required to review hundreds of pages of documents produced in an unrelated litigation, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University v. Hokie Real Estate, Inc., 7-10-CV-00466 (W.D. Va. 2010), and is not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Furthermore, Applicant objects to this Request because the burden to Applicant to respond outweighs the likely benefit, considering the needs of the case, the nature of the controversy, the importance of the issues at stake in the action, and the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues.

RESPONSE:

(i) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(ii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(iii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(iv) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(v) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(vi) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(vii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(viii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE:

Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, see Exhibit B annexed hereto for Applicant's Supplemental Response.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 5.

With respect to each document at pages (a) HOKIE-2011-01-21-001865 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-001866 of Exhibit A-2; (b) HOKIE-2011-01-21-001868 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-001872 of Exhibit A-2; (c) HOKIE-2011-01-21-001874 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002015 of Exhibit A-2; (d) HOKIE-2011-01-21-002471 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002473 of Exhibit A-2; and (e) HOKIE-2011-01-21-002531 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002532 of Exhibit A-2; admit the following:

- (i) VPI&SU received a copy of the document in January 2011.
- (ii) In January 2011, the use of the HOKIE mark depicted in the document was not authorized by VPI&SU.
- (iii) Since receiving the document, VPI&SU has taken no action to confirm the use of the HOKIE mark depicted in the document.
- (iv) Since receiving the document, VPI&SU has taken no action to stop the use of the HOKIE mark depicted in the document.
- (v) Since receiving the document, VPI&SU has taken no action to require or request that the user of the HOKIE mark as depicted in the document obtain a license for such use from VPI&SU.
- (vi) The use of the HOKIE mark depicted in the document is not presently authorized by VPI&SU.

OBJECTION:

Applicant specifically incorporates and repeats by reference each of its General Objections. Applicant further objects to this Request for Admission on the basis that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome and harassing in that to respond to this Request, Applicant is required to review hundreds of pages of documents produced in an unrelated litigation, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University v. Hokie Real Estate, Inc., 7-10-CV-00466 (W.D. Va. 2010), and is not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Furthermore, Applicant objects to this Request because the burden to Applicant to respond outweighs the likely benefit, considering the needs of the case, the nature of the controversy, the importance of the issues at stake in the action, and the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues.

RESPONSE:

(i) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(ii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(iii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(iv) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(v) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(vi) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE:

Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, see Exhibit C annexed hereto for Applicant's Supplemental Response.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 6.

With respect to each document in the PDF file served with these requests entitled “Exhibit B-2 to Opposer’s Third Set of Discovery Requests.pdf,” admit the following:

- (i) VPI&SU received a copy of the document in February 2011.
- (ii) In February 2011, the use of the HOKIE mark depicted in the document was not authorized by VPI&SU.

With respect to each third party use identified at pages 3 through 21 of Exhibit E, admit the following:

- (i) VPI&SU received a copy of Exhibit E in April 2011.
- (ii) In April 2011, the third party use was not authorized by VPI&SU.
- (iii) Since receiving Exhibit E, VPI&SU has taken no action to confirm the third party use.
- (vi) Since receiving Exhibit E, VPI&SU has taken no action to stop the third party use.
- (v) Since receiving Exhibit E, VPI&SU has taken no action to require or request that the user of the third party use obtain a license for such use from VPI&SU.
- (vi) The third party use is not presently authorized by VPI&SU.

OBJECTION:

Applicant specifically incorporates and repeats by reference each of its General Objections. Applicant further objects to this Request for Admission on the basis that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome and harassing in that to respond to this Request, Applicant is required to review hundreds of pages of documents produced in an unrelated litigation, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University v. Hokie Real Estate, Inc., 7-10-CV-00466 (W.D. Va. 2010), and is not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Furthermore, Applicant objects to this Request because the burden to Applicant to respond outweighs the likely benefit, considering the needs of the case, the nature of the controversy, the importance of the issues at stake in the action, and the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues.

RESPONSE:

(i) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(ii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(iii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(iv) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(v) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(vi) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE:

Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, see Exhibit F annexed hereto for Applicant's Supplemental Response.

INTERROGATORY

INTERROGATORY NO. 1

Describe in detail the reasons for any denial of any of the above requests for admission, including the date and nature of any action taken to confirm or stop any third party use or of any action taken to cause a third party user to obtain a license for such use from VPI&SU.

OBJECTION:

RESPONSE:

(i) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(ii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(iii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(iv) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(v) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(vi) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(vii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(viii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(xi) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

SUPPLEMENTAL OBJECTION:

Applicant further objects to Interrogatory No. 1 on the ground that responding to this Interrogatory would require Applicant to, in essence, respond to more than seventy-five interrogatories, including subparts. Opposer has served twelve Requests for Admission, many of which have between six to eight separate requests for admission that pertain to many hundreds of documents. This Interrogatory calls for Applicant to describe in detail the reasons for its denial of any of the Requests for Admission. Given the number of Requests for Admission, including subparts, the many hundreds of documents relating thereto, and the numerous denials interposed by Applicant in response to the Requests for Admission, responding to this Interrogatory would exceed the seventy-five interrogatory limit imposed by Rule 405.3 of the Trademark Manual of Procedure. Consequently, Applicant need not respond to this Interrogatory.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND THINGS

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND THINGS NO. 1

Produce all documents and things supporting, or relied upon in making, any denial of any of the above requests for admission, or relied upon in responding to the above interrogatory, including any communications or agreements with third party users.

OBJECTION:

Applicant specifically incorporates and repeats by reference each of its General Objections. Applicant further objects to this Request for Admission on the basis that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome and harassing in that to respond to this Request, Applicant is required to review hundreds of pages of documents produced in an unrelated litigation, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University v. Hokie Real Estate, Inc., 7-10-CV-00466 (W.D. Va. 2010), and is not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Furthermore, Applicant objects to this Request because the burden to Applicant to respond outweighs the likely benefit, considering the needs of the case, the nature of the controversy, the importance of the issues at stake in the action, and the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues.

VIRGINIA POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE AND STATE UNIVERSITY,

Opposition No. 91207895

Serial No.: 85-531,923

APPLICANT VIRGINIA POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE AND STATE UNIVERSITY'S SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSES TO OPPOSER HOKIE OBJECTIVE ONOMASTICS SOCIETY LLC'S FOURTH DISCOVERY REQUESTS

In accordance with Rule 36 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule 2.120 of the Trademark Rules, 37 C.F.R. § 2.120, Applicant Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University ("Virginia Tech" or "Applicant"), by and through its undersigned attorneys, hereby responds to Opposer's First Discovery Requests, as set forth below, subject to the objections set forth below.

DEFINITION

The term "DKI" when used in these responses means that Applicant lacks knowledge or information sufficient to be able to either admit or deny the Request for Admission notwithstanding having made a reasonable inquiry and that the information it knows or can readily obtain is insufficient to enable it to admit or deny said Request for Admission.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

1. The present responses are based upon and reflect only Applicant's knowledge, information and belief formed after reasonable investigation to determine responsive information. These responses may be subject to change, correction or amplification on the basis of further facts, information or circumstances that may come to Applicant's attention. In addition, Applicant reserves the right to assert any additional or supplemental objections.

2. Applicant objects to each and every discovery request to the extent that it is inconsistent with or attempts to impose obligations beyond, in addition to, or different from those imposed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Rules of Practice in Trademark cases, 37 C.F.R. § 2.1, et seq. ("Trademark Rules").

3. Applicant objects to the "Definitions and Instructions" as set forth in Opposer's First Set of Discovery Requests to the extent that they are inconsistent with or attempt to impose obligations beyond, in addition to, or different from those imposed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Trademark Rules. Applicant further objects to any definitions in these discovery requests to the extent that they purport to alter the plain meaning and/or scope of any specific discovery requests on the ground that such alteration renders the discovery requests vague, ambiguous, unduly broad and/or uncertain.

4. Applicant objects to Opposer's definition of the term "HOKIE Mark" to the extent that it includes marks other than "HOKIE."

5. Applicant objects to each and every discovery request to the extent that it seeks information protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, immunity or doctrine, and specifically reserves the right to withhold such information from Opposer. Nothing contained in these responses is intended to be, or in any way constitutes, a waiver of any such applicable privilege, immunity or doctrine.

6. Applicant objects to Opposer's discovery requests to the extent that they seek information that is not within Applicant's possession or knowledge, or that Applicant could not determine after conducting a reasonable investigation. In accordance with the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Trademark Rules, Applicant's responses are limited to information in their possession or knowledge.

7. Applicant objects to each and every discovery requests to the extent it seeks information that already is in Opposer's possession or knowledge, or that otherwise is publicly available to Opposer.

8. Applicant objects to Opposer's discovery requests to the extent that they are repetitive and duplicative of one another.

RESPONSES

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 1:

With respect to each document in the PDF file served with these requests entitled "Exhibit A to Opposer's Fourth Set of Discovery Requests.pdf" admit the following:

- (i) The document is an authentic and genuine copy of the original document.
- (ii) The document was made by VPI&SU in the regular course of business.
- (iii) The document was made by a person in the course of his or her job duties, and who had a duty to make a true record.
- (iv) The document is kept by VPI&SU in the ordinary course of business.
- (v) The document is used and relied upon by VPI&SU in the transaction of business.
- (vi) The document was made at or near the time of the events described therein.

(vii) The document was made by, or from information transmitted by, a person with knowledge of the facts contained therein.

(viii) The custodian of the document in fact has custody of it.

(ix) VPI&SU previously produced the document to a third party pursuant to a discovery request..

OBJECTION:

RESPONSE:

(i) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(ii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(iii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(iv) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(v) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(vi) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(vii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(viii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(xi) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE:

Subject to and without waiving the General Objections, and the specific objections above, see Exhibit A annexed hereto for Applicant's Supplemental Responses.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 2:

With respect to each document among the copies of issues of the VPI&SU student newspaper and copies of editions of the VPI&SU yearbook served together with Opposer's Responses to Applicant's First Request for Production of Documents and Things (dated September 30, 2013), admit the following:

- (i) The document is an authentic and genuine copy of the original document.
- (ii) The document was made by VPI&SU in the regular course of business.
- (iii) The document was made by a person in the course of his or her job duties, and who had a duty to make a true record.
- (iv) The document is kept by VPI&SU in the ordinary course of business.
- (v) The document is used and relied upon by VPI&SU in the transaction of business.
- (vi) The document was made at or near the time of the events described therein.

(vii) The document was made by, or from information transmitted by, a person with knowledge of the facts contained therein.

(viii) The custodian of the document in fact has custody of it.

OBJECTION:

RESPONSE:

(i) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(ii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(iii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(iv) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(v) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(vi) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(vii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(viii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE:

(i) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant admits that the copies of the pertinent issues of the VPI&SU student newspaper and copies of the pertinent editions of the VPI&SU Bugle Yearbook appear to be authentic and genuine.

(ii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant admits that the copies of the pertinent issues of the VPI&SU student newspaper and copies of the pertinent editions of the VPI&SU Bugle Yearbook were created and published by student organizations under the auspices of VPI&SU, but denies this Request in all other respects.

(iii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant admits that the copies of the pertinent issues of the VPI&SU student newspaper and copies of the pertinent editions of the VPI&SU Bugle Yearbook were created and published by student organizations under the auspices of VPI&SU, but denies that the newspaper issues and Bugle Yearbooks were made by an employee of VPI&SU in the course of his or her job duties, and who had a duty to make a true record.

(iv) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant admits this Request.

(v) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

(vi) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant admits that the copies of the pertinent issues of the VPI&SU student newspaper and copies of the pertinent editions of the VPI&SU Bugle Yearbook were made at or near the time of the events described therein.

(vii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant lacks knowledge or information sufficient to be able to either admit or deny this Request for Admission notwithstanding having made a reasonable inquiry and that the information it knows or can readily obtain is insufficient to enable it to admit or deny said Request for Admission.

(viii) Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant admits that the pertinent copies of the VPI&SU student newspaper and pertinent copies of the VPI&SU Bugle Yearbook are maintained in the University's library on microfiche.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 3:

With respect to the document at pages HOKIE-201 1-01-21-002269 through HOKIE-2011-01-21-002269 of the PDF file served with Opposer's Third Set of Discovery Requests requests entitled "Exhibit A-2 to Opposer's Third Set of Discovery Requests.pdf," admit that VPI&SU received a copy of the document in March or April 2010.

OBJECTION:

RESPONSE:

Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant denies this Request.

SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE:

Subject to and without waiving the General Objections and the specific objections above, Applicant supplements its response admitting this Request.

INTERROGATORYINTERROGATORY NO. 1

Describe in detail the reasons for any denial of any of the above requests for admission.

OBJECTION:

Applicant specifically incorporates and repeats by reference each of its General Objections. Applicant further objects to this Interrogatory on the basis that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome and harassing in that to respond to this Request, Applicant is required to review hundreds of pages of documents produced in an unrelated litigation, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University v. Hokie Real Estate, Inc., 7-10-CV-00466 (W.D. Va. 2010), and is not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Furthermore, Applicant objects to this Request because the burden to Applicant to respond outweighs the likely benefit, considering the needs of the case, the nature of the controversy, the importance of the issues at stake in the action, and the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues.

SUPPLEMENTAL OBJECTION:

Applicant further objects to Interrogatory No. 1 on the ground that responding to this Interrogatory would require Applicant to, in essence, respond to more than seventy-five interrogatories, including subparts. Opposer has served three Requests for Admission, two of which have between eight to nine separate requests for admission that pertain to many hundreds of documents. This Interrogatory calls for Applicant to describe in detail the reasons for its denial of any of the Requests for Admission. Given the number of Requests for Admission, including subparts, the many hundreds of documents relating thereto, and the numerous denials interposed by Applicant in response to the Requests for Admission, responding to this Interrogatory and Interrogatory No. 1 from Opposer's Third Set of Discovery Requests would exceed the seventy-five interrogatory limit imposed by Rule 405.3 of the Trademark Manual of Procedure. Consequently, Applicant need not respond to this Interrogatory.
